I am writing to share with you an exceptional experience my staff and I had with Jacqui Davis, your Event Manager.

My organization partners with the City of Los Angeles to produce the City of Los Angeles Technology & Education Summit each fall. We held the third annual conference this November 4th at your facility. As you can imagine, a conference worthy of bearing the city's name takes many months of planning, and its execution needs to be flawless, and thanks to Jacqui, it was.

The conference supports the city's economic development and internship initiatives by way of the Future Leaders Summit. The Future Leaders Summit is the high school educational component that occurs concurrently with the traditional adult conference and trade show. Its purpose is to provide hundreds of Los Angeles-area high school students with educational resources.

This year's program would not have been the success it was, had it not been for Jacqui. I have been in the conference production business since 1997, and I have yet to see the degree of professionalism, amount of hard work, dedication to the client, and plain old politeness and pleasantness that Jacqui provided for us. Jacqui truly went out of her way to make both the adult components and the Future Leaders Summit winners for all the stakeholders.

We are looking forward to working with Jacqui again next year, and in the many years to come.

All the best
